1. It has been reported that political organizers called a meeting of Government employees in San Cristobal, Venezuela, during the visit of the Venezuelan military junta and the President to San Cristobal, Tachira, in order to promote the candidacy of Junta member Perez Jimenez for the presidency. The Government employees were reluctant to attend the meeting when they discovered its political significance.
2. In San Antonio the mayor unsuccessfully attempted to assemble a group of customs, sanitation, and bank employees at his home, who would later attend the meeting in San Cristobal.
